POLICE INTEND TO MAKE THOROUGH RAID ON VAGRANTS

Porto Ricans Will be Gathered

BROWN'S DISBELIEF IN VIGILANTES

High Sheriff States That Every Man Has a Right to Protect His Own Home.

Does Not Wish to Have Every Citizen Carry a Gun—Porto Ricans Responsible for Most Burglaries and Hold-Ups—Are a Lazy and Cowardly Class of People.

High Sheriff Brown, when seen by a Republican reporter yesterday afternoon, gave his views on the present epidemic of burglaries and hold-ups as follows:

"I believe that the large number of unemployed Porto Ricans, who are now hanging around in this city, are responsible for the greater number of the burglaries and hold-ups that have recently occurred. They are a lazy, filthy class. They do not want to work. Many of them are absolutely destitute. They have to get food in some way, so they choose to get it by petty thieving. Most of the recent burglaries have been of a very petty kind, which confirms my belief that the Porto Ricans are responsible for them.

Petty and Cowardly Class.

"They are also doing a great part of the hold-ups. This was demonstrated by the attempted hold-up of a few days ago, when three Porto Ricans were captured. These people are not what would be called 'bad men' by the police. They are too petty and cowardly for that. Most of them have not a cent as for instance, out of that batch of 26 who were arrested for vagrancy the other day.
26 had not a penny, while the others only possessed 10 or 15 cents each. It is true that at times some are found with $50 or $60 on them, but they seem to be very miserly and would rather beg or steal than spend their money.

"The police are now trying to collect all these loose Porto Ricans, and we intend opening a regular crusade on them in a few days, arresting every Porto Rican who does not work, and has no visible means of support, for vagrancy.

To Work on Plantations.
"Arrangements are being made to send them to plantations on the other islands as quickly as we get them, and descriptions of each man will be sent to the district sheriffs, who will then keep close tab on them and be ready to arrest them for vagrancy as soon as they quit work.

"There is a rule which has been adopted by the plantations that no Porto Rican can get a job without showing a satisfactory certificate of discharge from the plantation where he worked last, but this rule will probably be suspended for the time being. We will make a point of sending the Porto Ricans to the other islands so as to prevent them from drifting back to Honolulu, as would be the case if we sent them to the plantations along the railroad line.

Waterfront Men Suspected.
"While I am certain that most of the burglaries and hold-ups have been committed by Porto Ricans, still I believe that white men have been concerned in most of them. These men probably hail from the waterfront.
Before we had American laws here any man who left his ship without the captain's permission was arrested as a deserter. Now, under the American laws, a sailor can leave his ship when he pleases, and the consequence is that a large number of hard characters are drifting on the waterfront.
We are trying to get rid of these men by arresting them for vagrancy and shipping them from here as fast as we can."

Districts Vigilance Committees.

When asked about his opinion concerning the organization of vigilance committees, Mr. Brown said: "I think this talk about vigilance committees is utterly absurd. It would lead to every man carrying a gun in his pocket, a thing which I am decidedly not in favor of. Most of the citizens here are not used to firearms and the end would probably be that some innocent person would get shot.

"It is quite another thing that a man should be ready to defend his home. A man's home is his castle, and he has a right to defend it. If a man burglarizes a house the theory is that he is going to commit a crime and that he may possibly take life to attain his ends. As a consequence the occupant has a right to shoot a person whom he catches in an actual act of burglary. Of course you can not shoot a man just because you catch him on your premises, but in a case like that of Mr. Cheek, Cheek certainly would have been justified in shooting his man if he really had a knife.

"Under the statutes I do not believe that I have a right to grant anyone a license without also giving him a police commission and a badge, which I certainly do not intend to do, and have the town full of specials.
Let every man look out for his own house and the police will do the rest."

CONCESSIONS MADE TO KONA-KAU RAILWAY

UPSET PRICE OF LAND REDUCED

Meeting Between Governor Dole and Territorial Department Heads—Right of Way Granted Over Government Land—Letters Read.

The Kona-Kau Railway Company obtained some concessions from the Territorial government, through its representative J. Cooper, yesterday morning. Mr. Cooper attended the meeting in the Capitol between Governor Dole and the Territorial department heads, asking for a reconsideration of the upset price for the land at Napoopoo desired by the railway company. The vote taken at the preceding meeting, whereby $50 was fixed as the upset price, was reconsidered with the result that it was decided to put the land up at auction for an upset price of $10 per acre, a fifty-foot strip on the south side, along the beach, being reserved by the government.

Mr. Cooper also requested a right of way over government land for the railway. This was granted under the statute. The right of eminent domain which was also asked was refused as there was said to be no law allowing it.

A petition was received from the taxpayers of Makawao, Maui, asking that the road from that place to Haiku be changed according to a map furnished.

A letter from Marston Campbell, published elsewhere, was read by Superintendent of Public Works J. H.
Boyd.

Attorney General Dole read an opinion, which is printed elsewhere, concerning the National Bank of Walluku.

Y. W. C. A. Song Service.

The song service which was held at the Y. W. C. A. yesterday noon was a great success. Over thirty ladies attended and the singing was enjoyed by all present.

ited the adjoining premises the same evening.

LECTURE BY MR. P. PERRY

INTERESTING TALK AT Y. W. C. A.

MANY PEOPLE ENJOY SPEECH ON SUBJECT "AUTHORS I HAVE KNOWN."

Visiting Book Lover Tells of His Acquaintance With Such Men as Mark Twain, Eugene Field, Oliver Optic, William Everett Hall and Many Well Known Authors.

Those who attended the lecture last evening, given by Mr. P. Perry, of Boston, in the Y. W. C. A. rooms, consider themselves fortunate in having heard Mr. Perry tell in his delightful informal way of the great literary lights has known, or met with, in his extensive travels.

His acquaintance with Oliver Optic began when he was sixteen years old when a fellow passenger en route to New York. Oliver Optic took a kindly interest in the boy and on parting with him gave him a book.
Many years after, when they met again, Oliver Optic recalled this incident.

Eugene Field Not Immoral.

Many charming stories were told of Eugene Field and of the Bohemian Club in Denver which was organized by Eugene Field. Mr. Perry utterly repudiated the idea that Field was an immoral man.

In Boston he knew William Everett Hale and had once heard him say that he felt like taking off his hat every time he saw an electric street car because of its wonderful and mysterious power.

Mark Twain was described as a man of charming personality, whose wit is spontaneous and sparkling, but whose great fault is his laziness.

Tells of Leslie's Salon.

In New York Mr. Perry had attended the salons of Mrs. Frank Leslie and met there a class of men whose costs were shiny and who cared for the kind and quantity of refreshments offered them more than for anything else.

Mr. Perry also gave charming reminiscences of the time he spent at the Aldine Club in New York, of his acquaintance with Holmes and many other notable literary men of New York.

CAUGHT LIVE GOLD FISH IN MID-AIR

CROWD WAS KEPT WONDERING

Special Scenery Appreciated—Ridiculously Clever Tricks—Every Seats Taken—Numerous Changes—Fresh Stunts Awheel.

Professor Powell, catching live gold fish in midair and from the audience on a regulation rod and line, and the same gentleman drawing unlimited pinocle decks from inside pocket-kept the large audience wondering at the Orpheum last night. There were lots of fresh numbers on the program. The Dellorrells had some special scenery and effects in their act that was much appreciated, and Bunth and Rudd performed wonders on the bones besides introducing a new set of tricks by the "Professor" that were as ridiculously clever as ever.

Platt and Sutherland changed their act as did Hope Haddon and Mlle de Monza. The bicyclists who were giving an ovation as was Salerno had one or two fresh tricks on their wheels.
The ariel footed Ferraris and Aoras and Alice continue to bring hearty takes of admiration from the house.
Every seat was again taken and everybody was enthusiastic over the performance. The numerous changes constitute practically a new program and these that are unchanged are well worth seeing many times over.
The matinee will be taken advantage of by all parents who wish to give their children a treat.

The Robber Escaped.

Charles Bon, employed at Bishop's Bank, is numbered among those who have recently been visited by foot-pads. His room at the Jacobson house was entered the other night, and a new suit of clothes, a pair of shoes a gold watch and a considerable amount of cash were secured by the robbers who escaped.

MUSICAL RECITAL AT KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

Program of Numerous Vocal and Instrumental Selections Well Rendered.

CHORUS OF ABOUT THIRTY GIRLS

Large Number of Classical Pieces are Performed by the School People.

Results of Careful and Thorough Training Shown—Evening Much Enjoyed by the Audience—Hall Prettily Decorated With Flowers and Filled With Interested People.

The pupils' recital which took place last night at the Kamehameha Girls' School was a great success and was most thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. The recital took place in the large hall in the mauka wing of the building. The hall was tastily decorated with flowers and greens and was packed with people.

The recital does great credit to the good and thorough instruction which the pupils had evidently received. A glance at the program shows by such names as Beethoven, Mendelssohn, Grieg and Rubinstein that solid classical music has been taught instead of the modern technical fireworks which take the places of the old masters at many places.

The Evening's Program.

The complete program was as follows:

1. Bohm, Piano Duet, Polonaise.
2. The Dance King.
3. Bertha Peller, Miss Byington.
4. Mendelssohn chorus.
- (a) Greeting.
- (b) Fair Tinted Primrose.
5. A Class.
6. Bohm, Piano Trio, Festival March.
7. Zelle Lima, Hattie Jones, Bertha Peller.
8. Zimmerman, Chorus, Fairy Chorus.
9. A Class.
10. Grieg, Piano Solo.
11. Alumbblatt Alice Muller.
12. (a) Mendelssohn, Song.
- (b) On Music's Wing.
13. Lyman, Song, My Sweetheart.
14. Beethoven, Duet.
15. Melody in D.
16. Piano, Clara Smith.
17. Organ, Miss Byington.
18. Pianquette, Chorus.
19. Chimes of Normandy, Legend of the Bells.
20. Kamehameha Choir.
21. Raff—Piano Quartette, Lenore.
22. Symphony.
23. March.
24. 1. Piano.
25. 2. Piano.
26. Katie Sadler, Miss Byington, Elizabeth Vannatta, Miss Aholo.
27. Sullivan arr.—Chorus.
28. The Lost Chord.
29. A Class.
30. K. G. S. Call.
31. Excellent Chorus Work.

Although the instrumental selections were well rendered, the choruses were decidedly the most enjoyable features of the program. The best one was possibly the "Legend of Normandy," from the "Chimes of Normandy," which was rendered by both female and male voices.

The first choruses of the program, "Greeting" and "Fair Tinted Primrose" were also well rendered by about thirty of the girls. The fine voices which generally accompany a strain of native blood, together with the careful and thorough training which they have received from the musical instructor, Miss Byington, with the perfect modulation and accurate tone made these choruses such as are seldom heard in Honolulu.

Charming Entertainment.

The "Fairy Chorus" by Zimmerman, rendered by the full chorus of girls, was a very pretty thing indeed, as was also "The Lost Chord," by Sullivan, and Bullard's "Hush, Hush." Upon the whole the ensemble of charms of the evening, the beautiful singing, the many handsome girls dressed in white who were seated on the platform, and the tasty floral decorations made last night's recital an event that will not be easily forgotten by those who were fortunate enough to attend.

CONCORDIA'S MASKED BALL

YOUNG PEOPLE DANCING MERRILY

LEADING PORTUGUESE SOCIETY ENTERTAINS VERY LARGE AUDIENCE.

Romeo, George Washington and Spanish Cavalier Represented.
The 1902 Club Also Gives Successful Dance—Vocal Selections and Clever Acting Appreciated.

The masquerade ball given last night at Lusitania hall by the Concordia Society was a great success.
The masks were few but those that used them took it upon themselves to represent the absent ones.

Over one hundred couples whirled and danced until the small hours of this morning. A true Latin gaiety prevailed during the evening and nothing happened to mar the joyous and happy spirit of the merry-makers.

A Hawaiian quintet club furnished the music for the dancing. Between the hours of 7:30 and 9:30 the floor had been reserved for the masks, some of which were very pretty. The Spanish Cavalier, as represented by V. Fernandez, was very realistic and his costume was one of the finest to be had in Honolulu. A close second was Romeo, represented by Abel S.
Nascimento, who in his demeanor truly personified the Romeo of the celebrated opera. A small boy, Irene Costa, dressed all in green. R.
Correa made a most typical American Indian, and J. Marcelino impersonated to perfection an American girl.

About 10 o'clock a committee composed of Major Camara, A. Sylva and J. Saunders met on the platform to decide who deserved the prizes for the best and most original costume.
They decided that Manuel Silva, who represented a flower girl, deserved the first prize and that Abel Nascimento should be given the second.

Refreshments were served during the evening, and the dance proved to be a most enjoyable affair. The committee in charge of the ball was as follows:

J. C. Oliveira, chairman; M. J. Cabral, secretary; J. M. Gomez, J. A.
Jose, J. M. Medeiros, M. Alimada, Jr., and L. Nunes.

The Concordia is a musical and social society composed of the best element of the Portuguese colony and has the following officers: L. Nunes, president; J. Jose, vice-president; M.
Oliveira, secretary and J. Carvalho, treasurer.

1902 CLUB'S SOCIAL.

Over a Hundred People Enjoy Themselves Until the Early Hour.

The first social and dance of the 1902 Club was given last night at Elk's hall which had been prettily decorated. The music was furnished by a Hawaiian orchestra. Over sixty couples were present, and danced until a late or rather early hour this morning.

Between dances, Mrs. Ryder gave a vocal solo, and Mr. Oliver Bainbridge entertained the audience with some clever impersonations.

Refreshments were served during the evening and over a dozen members signed the rolls of the club.

nounced. Miss Walker is the daugh-Augustine's Chapel at Waikiki.

the Wanderers, the teams being composed as follows:

PRINCESS THERESA GIVES GRAND LUAU

FEASTING, DANCING AND MUSIC

Hundreds of Honolulu's Prominent People Gather at Keoua Villa in Honor of the Birthday of the Young Prince Keoua.

Princess Theresa Wilcox, wife of Delegate Wilcox, gave a grand luau and reception at her home, Keoua Villa, last night in honor of the ninth birthday anniversary of her son, Prince Keoua.

A magnificent feast was spread, a number of long, heavily laden tables accommodating a large number of Honolulu's prominent people.

From early in the evening until early this morning feasting and dancing and merry-making went on to the great pleasure of all present.

The Territorial band was on hand with its ever charming music and the Hawaiian Quintet Club, with its fascinating Hawaiian airs, was also conspicuous and delightful.

Singing found a chance between the dances to charm the ears of hundreds of listeners and the voices of the song birds of Hawaii were indeed beautiful.

Princess Theresa was here, there and everywhere, looking after her guests and taking care that none lacked for entertainment or repast.
The Princess was ably and delightfully assisted by Miss Lillian Cramer.

The decorations, floral and otherwise, were magnificent. Keoua Villa was last night the prettiest and the happiest place in town. The luau was an event which will linger long in the minds of those fortunate enough to attend.

BOTH ASSOCIATIONS PICNIC TOGETHER

RESULT OF A PRINTER'S ERROR

Y. W. C. A. Plans a Picnic to Waikiki and is Joined by Y. M. C. A. Later —Music and Supper at Mrs. Hob-ron's Beach Place.

On Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock the members of the Y. M. C. A. will meet at the Y. W. C. A. and the party will proceed on wheels to Waikiki.
Those who prefer traveling on the cars or in other ways, and those who are not able to start at that hour, will join the party later in Waikiki.
The party will stop at Mrs. Hob-ron's place on the old beach road.
Every one will take her own supper which will be enjoyed on the lanai.
Music will form part of the program of the day. There will be four string ed instruments and vocal selections will also be rendered.

All those who attend are invited to take their bathing suits as there is a fine bathing place at Mrs. Hobron's beach house where the ladies expect to enjoy a swim.

All members of the Association are invited to attend and to induce their friends to go with them.

Secretary Brown, of the Y. M. C.
A., during the afternoon discovered that one of the evening papers by a typographical error had stated that the picnic was given by the Y. M. C.
A. He found that a number of the Y. M. C. A. members who had read this notice without suspecting the mistake had begun to make arrangements for the trip, and as he did not think it possible that notification of the mistake could reach all these people in time, he promptly took the bull by the horns and telephoned to the committee of ladies in charge of the picnic.

He told them of the turn affairs had taken and ended his statement with the request that the Y. M. C. A. members be allowed to accompany the Y.
W. C. A. ladies on their trip. This request was graciously granted and, as a consequence, the Y. M. C. A. men will be enabled to enjoy a sociable picnic through the little mistake of placing an "M" in the place of a "W."

MISS HOLT HAS A PRETTY WEDDING AT ST. ANDREW'S

Episcopal Cathedral Filled With Friends of Bride and Bridegroom.

CHURCH PRETTILY DECORATED

Bridal Party Greeted With Wagner's March on Grand Organ.

Colonel John D. Holt Gives Bride Away—Miss Helen Holt Acts as Bridesmaid and George F. Wright as Best Man—Hundreds Attend Reception—Handsome Presents.

St. Andrew's Cathedral was filled with a fashionable audience last evening to witness the solemnization of the marriage bans between Edward Vivian Richardson and Miss Elizabeth Holt. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Alexander Mac-Intosh, the impressive double ring service of the Episcopal church being employed.

The bride was charming in a white gown of peau de soie, trimmed with shirred satin ribbon. The gown was made high at the neck with half-length sleeves, and three graduated flounces, trimmed with satin ribbon, adorned the skirt. The long tulle veil was caught up with a spray of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and maiden-hair fern.

Miss Helen Holt, a niece of the bride, was the bridesmaid. She was gowned in white organdy over pale blue silk, and carried a bouquet similar to that of the bride. Misses Wattle and Amelia Holt, also nieces of the bride, were the flower girls who scattered rose petals in the path of the bride up to the chancel rail.

George F. Wright acted as best man. Colonel John D. Holt, a brother of the bride, gave her away, and Lionel Hart and Charles Ah Fook acted as ushers.

Beautiful Floral Decorations.

The floral decorations were very effective and beautiful, and they were the work of friends and former schoolmates of the bride. The chandeliers were wound with malle leis. The chancel rail was hidden by ropes of green, with bleeding hearts, while an arch at the entrance to the chancel was formed of palm leaves and bleeding hearts. The choir desks were trimmed with huapala vine and many handsome palms and bamboo branches were effectively placed in the chancel.

Wagner's bridal march was played by Organist Wray Taylor upon the entrance of the bridal party. While the ceremony was being performed he rendered some sweetly solemn music in a minor key, and at the close gave Mendelssohn's wedding march.

In the audience at the church were Prince Cupid Kalamianole and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Carter, Mrs.
Richards, Wm. Dixon, Miss Irene Dixon, Miss Peterson, Mrs. Cunha, Mr. Albert Cunha, Mr. and Mrs.
Booth, Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth and wife, Mrs. Lowry, Miss Nelson, Mrs. McIntosh and many others.

Hundreds Attend Reception.

After the wedding a reception took place at the home of the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, on the corner of Makiki and Lunailo street.

Between 250 and 300 people called to congratulate the happy couple, leaving as souvenirs a host of beautiful presents, such as jewelry, silverware, cut glass ware, calabashes, articles useful for housekeeping, and many other things too numerous to mention.

The Quintet Club was present and to its strains of music the many young society people present enjoyed a dance. During the evening light refreshments were served.

Hasson Ready for Work.

Arrangements for the inspection of electric wires about the city are going forward at a gratifying rate. W.
F. C. Hasson recently appointed inspector is preparing forms to sys-tematize his office work.
